- Creative Writing: Join us for our creative writing and personal narratives in French class. Each week we will work on a different theme.
- French Culture History: Learning French is also about embracing the spirit of France. Travel through the centuries and explore how France built its great cultural institutions.
- France's Regions: Pack you bag to travel across eight of France's most fascinating regions and discover how history, geography, tradition and tourism shape each one unique identity while enriching your vocabulary and strengthening your comprehension.
- Literature and Grammar: Students will learn Grammar through literature. They will be engaged with a text such as a novel to work on core grammatical concepts and vocabulary material.
- Beginner Book Club: Improve Your French While Reading Together - Perfect for new readers in French.
- Intermediate Book Club: Together, we'll read the story page by page, uncover new vocabulary, review helpful grammar points, and enjoy lively discussions about the characters and their choices. It's the perfect way to learn, connect, and have fun—one page at a time.
